Personal statement

My passion is Unscripted TV. I want to be a part of creating great and exciting TV shows. Use and share all of my knowledge and experience to create the best possible shows and support my peers to develop.

I want to expand my horizons and extend my experience as much as possible.

These are the roles in which I am experienced and am looking for opportunities in:

Production Manager, Development Producer, Story Producer, Post-Production Supervisor, and Post-Production Editor.

Key Skills

Pre-production

- Developing the major idea of a season or project. Finding and harnessing new and interesting storylines and twists
- Contact with customer (TV Channel) to approve ideas
- Control of casting process, and choosing ideal personalities
- Developing character-arch and narrative
- Developing reality series – competition, hooks, drama point etc.
- Scheduling shooting plan, liaising with all stakeholders to organise the most efficient schedule

Production

- Implementing planned story-arch and narrative with the end goal in mind
- Following the dramatic path of the characters and participants
- Respond quickly to changing circumstances and invent new plot twists
- Assigning camera operators the task of shooting additional video for more flexible editing
- Managing the output of all teams to achieve the best result
- Interviewing

Post-production

(Adobe Premier, Final Cut, Avid Media Composer)

- Cutting original material and composing it into a captivating series
- Analysing the hook and drama points, adding reinforcing details such as pauses, music, or adding interjecting interviews etc to improve the final product
- Creating teasers and promotional material
- Selecting appropriate and dramatic background music
- As production chief I can analyse the work of other teams; understand, articulate, and support in how it can be improved
- Controlling and adhering to postproduction schedule
