Profile

I am a highly personable individual, with a broad range of audio related skills and a positive, can-do attitude. I'm an incredibly quick and versatile learner, who is exceptionally hard-working and trustworthy, with a keen eye and ear for attention to detail. Always willing to take on a new challenge, I'm highly experienced in working under pressure and keeping a relaxed demeanour in challenging circumstances.

I have many years of experience working within client-facing roles, successfully building lasting relationships as well as an excellent working understanding of the post-production industry, establishing my career by working my way up through my current company, to become an exceptional employee and dubbing mixer. I have a passion for film, TV and music, as well as all things sport related.
